

Third Sector Review

The DTA has been invited to represent the community sector on an advisory group on the third sector review.

---

This will inform the government's spending plans. Ed Miliband has proposed that the group should help develop a ten year third sector forward strategy with a focus on four themes: campaigning for change, social enterprise, public service delivery, building community assets.

To read the interim report please click here.

---

©2008 Development Trust Association
Built on OneStopCMS

Company limited by guarantee registered in England no. 2787912. VAT registration no. 749729671. Registered charity no. 1036460